Digital Licence Terms

Caribbean Construction Law: A Regional and Comparative Treatise

IMPORTANT NOTICE

The Work is a scholarly treatise. It is not legal advice, is not given in respect of any particular matter, and is not a substitute for the professional judgment of a qualified legal practitioner. The Work states the law as at 24 April 2026. See clause 6.

These terms govern the licence of the digital edition of the Work. A purchaser accepts them by paying for licence keys against an invoice or receipt. Each Licensee accepts them by registering a licence key under clause 12 or, for an Evaluation Seat, by the reply described in clause 1.4. A licence acquired before these terms took effect remains governed by the version under which it was acquired.

1. Grant of licence

- 1.1 The Licensor, The Forrester Group (Guyana), Inc., through its imprint The Sovereign Press, grants each Licensee a non-exclusive, non-transferable licence to use the digital edition of the Work for one Seat.
- 1.2 “Seat” means one named individual who has registered a licence key or who holds an Evaluation Seat. A Seat is personal to that individual and cannot be reassigned. An organisation that wishes another individual to use the Work acquires a further licence key for that individual.
- 1.3 “Seat Holder” means the individual recorded against a licence serial in the Press’s seat register, to whom a copy is delivered under clause 5 and whose name the copy carries under clause 9.
- 1.4 Evaluation Seat. The Press may offer a Seat at no charge, by letter, to a person or office it selects for evaluation. The recipient accepts these terms by replying to that letter. An Evaluation Seat is a Seat in every respect under these terms, is issued without a licence key or invoice, and is recorded in the seat register at nil charge. Nothing is asked of the holder in return.

2. Permitted use

- 2.1 Internal professional use by the Licensee, in the ordinary course of the Licensee’s work, including reference, research, drafting, training, and citation in the Licensee’s own work product.
- 2.2 Printing of individual pages or sections for the personal working use of a licensed Seat Holder.
- 2.3 Quotation in the Licensee’s own advice, pleadings, submissions, or internal materials, with ordinary attribution.

3. Restrictions

- 3.1 The Work may not be redistributed, resold, sublicensed, posted to a public or shared network location, or provided to any other person.

- 3.2 The Work may not be used to train, fine-tune, or benchmark any machine-learning or artificial-intelligence system without the Licensor's prior written consent.
- 3.3 No licence is granted to reproduce the Work, in whole or substantial part, for commercial distribution to third parties.

4. Term

- 4.1 The licence is perpetual for the Edition purchased, as defined in clause 8, subject to the restrictions above. It does not include future Editions, which are licensed separately.
- 4.2 The Licensor may issue corrected printings of the same Edition; the Licensee is entitled to the corrected file on request at no additional charge, in accordance with clause 8.

5. Delivery and support

- 5.1 The digital edition is delivered as a PDF file by electronic transmission within three working days of the registration of a licence key or, for an Evaluation Seat, of the reply under clause 1.4, stamped in accordance with clause 9.
- 5.2 Enquiries regarding this licence: publisher@thesovereignpressgy.com, by telephone on +592 683 5373, or by WhatsApp on +592 621 0224. The Licensor's business address is Lot 166 Waterloo Street, North Cummingsburg, Georgetown, and its registered office is Lot 536 First Avenue, La Parfaite Harmonie, West Bank Demerara, Guyana.

6. The Work is not legal advice

- 6.1 The Work is a scholarly treatise. It is not legal advice, is not given in respect of any particular matter, transaction or dispute, and is not a substitute for the professional judgment of a qualified legal practitioner.
- 6.2 Nothing in the Work or in this licence creates an attorney-and-client relationship between the Licensor and the Licensee, or between the author and any Seat Holder.
- 6.3 The Work states the law as at 24 April 2026. The law changes. The Licensee is responsible for verifying that any proposition relied upon remains current at the time of reliance.
- 6.4 The Licensor does not carry on the practice of law in any jurisdiction, and the supply of the Work does not constitute the provision of legal services.

7. Limitation of liability

- 7.1 The Licensor warrants that it has the right to grant this licence and that the Work is supplied with reasonable skill and care.
- 7.2 Save as set out in clause 7.1, the Work is supplied as is. The Licensor gives no warranty that the Work is complete, accurate in every particular, current, or fit for any specific purpose, and no warranty is to be implied by statute, custom or otherwise.
- 7.3 The Licensor is not liable for any indirect or consequential loss, or for loss of profit, revenue, business, goodwill or anticipated savings, or for any claim made against the Licensee by a third party, however arising.
- 7.4 The Licensor's total aggregate liability arising out of or in connection with this licence, whether in contract, tort (including negligence), breach of statutory duty or otherwise, is limited to the licence fees paid by or for the Licensee in the twelve months preceding the event giving rise to the claim.

- 7.5 Nothing in this clause limits or excludes liability for death or personal injury caused by negligence, for fraud or fraudulent misrepresentation, or for any liability which cannot lawfully be limited or excluded.
- 7.6 Where the Licensee or the purchaser of a licence key is a consumer within the meaning of the Consumer Affairs Act 2011, clauses 7.2 to 7.4 apply only so far as that Act permits, and nothing in these terms excludes, restricts or modifies any condition, warranty, right or remedy which that Act gives.

8. Editions and versions

- 8.1 “Edition” means a numbered edition of the Work (First Edition, Second Edition, and so on). “Version” means a numbered revision within an Edition, expressed as v[Edition].[minor].[patch]. The Edition licensed under these terms is the First Edition, supplied at the version current at the registration of the licence key or, for an Evaluation Seat, at the reply under clause 1.4.
- 8.2 This licence covers the Edition identified in clause 8.1 and every subsequent version of that Edition, at no additional charge. A licensed Seat Holder is entitled, on request or on notification by the Licensor, to the current version file.
- 8.3 A revision is issued as a new version of the same Edition where it consists of correction of errors, updating of citations, revision of the index or apparatus, correction of typography or layout, or the incorporation of developments in the law that do not require the Work to be restructured.
- 8.4 A revision is issued as a new Edition only where the Work is substantially restructured, substantially extended in scope, or where a change in the law is of such character that the Licensor, acting reasonably, determines a new Edition is required. A new Edition is licensed separately.
- 8.5 The Licensor will notify Seat Holders by email when a new version of the licensed Edition is issued, and will state whether the revision is a version or a new Edition.

9. Stamping and seat identification

- 9.1 Each Seat is supplied with a copy of the Work stamped on every page with the Seat Holder’s name and the licence serial.
- 9.2 The Seat Holder gives their name and email address on registration under clause 12.2 or in the reply under clause 1.4. The Licensor will use those details only for issuing the Work, notifying Seat Holders under clause 8.5, and identifying the source of any unauthorised copy.
- 9.3 The Seat Holder will not remove, obscure, alter or attempt to defeat the stamp.
- 9.4 The Seat Holder acknowledges that the stamp permits the Licensor to identify the seat from which any unauthorised copy originated, and that a copy bearing a Seat Holder’s stamp found in the possession of any other person is evidence of a breach of clause 3.
- 9.5 [Not used.]

10. Termination

- 10.1 Either party may terminate this licence by written notice if the other commits a material breach which is not remedied within thirty days of written notice specifying the breach.
- 10.2 The Licensor may terminate immediately by written notice where the Licensee redistributes the Work in breach of clause 3, or defeats or removes the stamp in breach of clause 9.3.
- 10.3 On termination the Licensee will cease all use of the Work, delete all copies in their possession or control, and confirm in writing within fourteen days that they have done so.

- 10.4 Termination does not affect the Licensee's own work product. Advice, pleadings, submissions, opinions and internal materials already prepared by the Licensee which cite or quote the Work in accordance with clause 2 may continue to be used, retained and relied upon without restriction.
- 10.5 No refund of fees is payable on termination for the Licensee's breach. Where the Licensor terminates otherwise than for breach, it will refund a fair proportion of fees paid.
- 10.6 Clauses 6, 7, 9.4 and this clause 10 survive termination.

11. Governing law

- 11.1 These terms are governed by the law of the Co-operative Republic of Guyana, and the courts of Guyana have exclusive jurisdiction in respect of any dispute arising out of or in connection with them.

12. Licence keys

- 12.1 A licence key is a code, sold by the Licensor, that entitles the person who registers it to one Seat in the Edition stated on its receipt. It is the prepaid price of that licence. It has no cash value, carries no balance, is not accepted in payment for anything else, and may not be exchanged for any other title, Edition or product.
- 12.2 A licence key is registered at thesovereignpressgy.com/key by entering the key, the name and email address of the person who is to hold the Seat, and acceptance of these terms. On registration that person becomes the Licensee and the Seat Holder for that Seat, whoever paid for the key, and these terms bind them from that moment.
- 12.3 Each licence key may be registered once. A registered licence key cannot be registered again or transferred.
- 12.4 A licence key must be registered within twelve months of the date of purchase stated on its receipt. A licence key not registered within that period lapses and can no longer be registered. For a further twelve months after it lapses, the original payer may ask for a refund of a lapsed key, and the Licensor will refund the price paid in the manner set out in clause 12.5.
- 12.5 Before registration, the purchaser may ask the Licensor to cancel a licence key. The Licensor will cancel it and refund the price paid, through the payment provider by which it was paid, to the original payer. Once registered, a licence key has been used and cannot be returned for a refund, save under clause 10.5 or where the law gives the Licensee a right to one.
- 12.6 The Licensor may refuse a refund under clause 12.4 or 12.5, and may cancel a licence key without refund, where it reasonably believes that the key was obtained by fraud, theft or other unlawful means, that the payment for it has been reversed or was not received, or that the request is not made by or with the authority of the original payer. The Licensor will give its reasons in writing.
- 12.7 The receipt for a licence key is issued by The Forrester Group (Guyana), Inc., through its imprint The Sovereign Press. It states the Edition, the single Seat, the price paid, the value added tax charged (if any) and the date of purchase, and stands in place of an invoice for the purposes of these terms.
- 12.8 Personal details given at registration are used only as clause 9.2 describes. Consent to receive news from the Licensor is separate and optional, and may be withdrawn at any time.
